

Dear Customer / Supplier

Sicame Group headquartered in Pompadour France, is established in 24 Countries based on each Continent around the globe servicing customers in 170 Countries.

To reflect the growing significance of the UK operations, the Group has established Sicame UK Limited as a single Corporate entity which wholly owns the three subsidiaries of WT Henley, Sicame Electrical Developments and Sicame Electrical Distribution. The Group believes that this structure significantly strengthens UK operations and underpins the commitment of the Group to its customers and supply chain partners.

The three divisions along with their brand names will continue to trade as normal from the three sites of Erith, Huddersfield and Newcastle upon Tyne with the vision of achieving the highest possible levels of customer service and satisfaction. The enhanced financial and corporate strength of the UK Group will establish the structural basis to deliver complete solutions and a wider range of services to the market into the future.
